Tucson's Renters Preparing for Rally Against Proposed Tucson Rental Tax Renters Angry at City Manager's Proposal

What: Renters at the Lantana Apartments are getting ready for tomorrow's City Council hearing on the proposed 2% rental tax. The renters are making signs for the rally to be held tomorrow at 4:30 pm before the City Council hearing at 5:30 pm. In addition, they are reaching out to their neighbors and fellow renters to let them know about the proposed tax.

Tucson City Manager Mike Letcher has been advocating for the tax and held a press conference last week to force the City Council to choose between a tax on renters and police & fire layoffs. Renters in Tucson are outraged and have pledged to show up at tomorrow's hearing to let the City Manager and the Council know how they feel.

When: Monday, January 4, 2010 at 3 pm

Where: Lantana Apartments Clubhouse (1111 West St. Mary's Road, Tucson, AZ 85745)

Who: Tucson's renters
